and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

DAILY GAZETTE.

MEETING OF GOVERNORS.—The Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin as follows:

A communication has been received by Gov. Curtin, by the hands of the gentlemen above referred to, from Gov. Dennison of Ohio, requesting Governors Curtin, and Morgan of New York, to meet himself and the governors of Indiana and Illinois in council at Columbus, on next Monday evening, to compare plans of the campaign.

The proposition of Gov. Curtin to the governor of Ohio, to march the volunteers of Pennsylvania, in connection with the troops of the north-west, to the federal city by any route decided upon, was at first as I informed you by telegraph, received very favorably. But since that time there have been reasons to suppose that the first battle would not be fought at the capital, and hence the change. The plan of Dennison is to march an army of eighty thousand men to Richmond, and there await the attack of the southern army—as it is generally believed that Jeff Davis is making to that point; the Ohio volunteers, now at Lancaster, to be reinforced from time to time, and they, in connection with the Pennsylvania volunteers prepared to cut off any invasion from this side of Maryland. In consequence of the meeting of the legislature this day, it will be impossible for Gov. Curtin to be present, although it may be convenient for Gov. Morgan to accede to the request. Outside of the reason assigned, it is the desire of Gov. Dennison not to draw his troops too far away from home at the present time, until something definite as regards the movements of the southern army is ascertained. Another point of the communication is, that he has issued orders that no further communication be held with Baltimore, via the Baltimore & Ohio railroad; while in this state no more provisions will be allowed to leave here by way of the Susquehanna and Tide Water canal.

THE REBEL NAVY.—The rebels have set about supplying themselves with a navy, by seizing private property wherever they find it. The new iron propellor, North Carolina, owned by Cromwell & Co., of N. York city, has been seized at Wilmington, N. C. She is fast, 700 tons burden, draws 10 feet when light, and has two masts. The propellors Potomac and George's Creek, also belonging to Cromwell & Co., have been seized at Baltimore. The entire line of boats belonging to Charles Morgan of New York city, 12 in number, running between New Orleans and Galveston, have also been stolen. These latter are 220 feet in length, and draw 10 feet when loaded. They are fine boats, and will be valuable to the rebels. We may soon expect to hear of them off our coast.

Gov. Letcher has ordered the vessels seized by the Virginians restored, except the two steamers worth over $300,000. The other vessels ordered restored, it appears, had cargoes belonging to British citizens on board, and they dare not keep them.

SUICIDE OF A NAVY OFFICER.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Philadelphia says:

A terrible deed was done on Wednesday by Commander Lloyd B. Newell, a navy officer on the retired list, 50 years of age.—He is a Georgian by birth, but his wife is a northern lady, and he has resided for several years at Bristol, 20 miles from the city. His brothers are in the rebel army in Georgia, and have been writing to him, urging him to throw up his commission and join them in their treason. But poor Newell was true to his flag. Yet the struggle between fidelity to his oath and affection for his brothers, added to the possibility of his being called on to face them in battle, appears to have destroyed his reason. Some days since he observed to his wife that he thought he had better make his will, and accordingly did so. On Wednesday last he left home for this city, telling his wife he expected to be away all night, and came to his usual quarters at the Merchant's Hotel. Nothing different from his ordinary behavior was noticed, but he retired to his room and shot himself. His unhappy family knew nothing of his sad fate until they saw it announced in the evening papers. Poor Newell was a man of the highest character, and a gentlemen in all respects.

BALTIMORE IN DISTRESS.—We copy the following from a late Baltimore correspondence of the N. Y. Herald:

Baltimore is already paying the penalty of her wickedness. Business is at an absolute stand still, money is hourly growing scarce and provisions are steadily advancing in price. The proposition to create a circulating medium, in the shape of municipal notes of a small denomination, is a symptom of an impending collapse.—Should the secession folly be realized, Baltimore is doomed to eternal ruin.

A COMPANY OF BALTIMORE EXILES.—Mr. T. Edward Rawlings, formerly of the Illustrated News of this city, has been elected captain of a company of volunteers, now forming in Philadelphia. The company already numbers over two hundred men.—It is known as the "Baltimore Union Volunteers," and is composed almost entirely of Union men, who have been driven from Baltimore because of their known devotion to the flag of their country.—N. Y. Evening Post.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Mr. Eli John March, of English birth, is very desirous of learning the whereabouts of his brother, William T. March, who was bound in 1854 to Mr. Wm. Carlton, (a vender of fanning machines) in Racine, Wis. The newspaper press will confer a favor by copying the above notice. Any person acquainted with the location of the said Wm. T. March, will confer a great favor by addressing Eli J. March, Waukesha, Wis.

TIME TO WHISTLE.—A good story is told of Lieut. Slemmer. When he was in command of Fort Pickens, Gen. Brown of the secession forces, sent a demand for its surrender. Lieut. Slemmer, instead of complying with the demand, sent to inquire the number of troops besieging the fort. Gen. Brown, evidently desirous of furnishing him with full information on this point, replied that he had 1,700 men under his immediate command, and 5,000 more within whistle call. Lieut. Slemmer's reply was: "You had better begin to whistle!"

The News.

Our despatches to-day are more war-like. Rebellion still lurks in Maryland and is giving work to Gen. Butler. Virginia is throwing off the mask and assembles an army of 30,000 men. The rebels at Alexandria have become alarmed and fled. It is proposed to send a western army to occupy Memphis and cut off supplies there, instead of Cairo. The blockade at the latter point interferes with the trade of states supposed to be loyal. We may look for the occupation of Baltimore in a day or two by the forces under Gen. Butler. There will probably be no battle, but if the mob fires upon the troops from the houses, "the houses will be blown up."

The Requisition for Troops.

The proclamation of the President calling a further number of troops into the service has been published. He asks for 42,094 volunteers to serve for a period of three years, unless sooner discharged, and to be mustered into service as infantry and cavalry; also 22,750 for the regular army, and 18,000 seamen. The wisdom of the President in calling for additional forces, in consequence of the magnitude of the rebellion, must be apparent to all. The loyal people would wish it increased to five times that number. The difficulty will not be to find volunteers, but to divide up the new levy, so as to satisfy the anxious desire of so many patriotic men, who demand that they shall share in the defense of the country.

Response of Wisconsin.

Last Saturday 68 companies reported themselves full to the Governor, and seven more can fill up on short notice. All have tendered their services. These companies would make more than seven regiments.—Who will say that Wisconsin is not ready for her share of the work in supporting the government and repressing rebellion?

Shall We Feed the Enemy?

Now that general war exists between the general government and certain seceding states, it becomes important to know how long provisions are to be sent to the rebels. Why should there be a blockade on the ocean and not on the land? Some suppose that the troops at Cairo are stopping the food of the down-the-river-traitors. This is not the case. The provision trade was never more active than it is now between Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, and the upper Mississippi country, with the rebel states of gulf and the lower Mississippi. Wisconsin wheat and flour is daily taken to Chicago, from whence it is sent south, by dealers there, to where it gives life and strength to those, who are preparing to hew down our volunteers who are on the march to defend the country against the attacks of the traitors. We learn from the Cincinnati Gazette that there is no point on either the Mississippi or the Ohio, except Cincinnati, where the shipment of provisions south has been stopped a single day; and even contraband goods are sent from St. Louis by the Iron Mountain railroad, and from thence are This question of feeding the enemy ought, transported by wagons around Cairo.— at once, to be decided! If we are to go on supplying them with food, and it is considered a perfectly legimate business to do so, we can scarcely see the propriety of limiting the supply of powder and balls. If we give them food to enable them to make campaigns against us, let us be wholly magnanimous, and send them muskets and cannon, also.

SOUTHERN TELEGRAPHS.—The following specimen of southern news is from the Mobile Tribune of April 21st:

We receive the following despatch from reliable sources: [ED.

LOUISVILLE, April 20.

Kentucky has declared through her legislature that she will secede.

President Lincoln will resign, in obedience to Gen. Scott's example.

☞ John M. Botts, who has been a great Union man in Virginia, now proposes that the President shall issue a proclamation for a truce to hostilities, and declares at the same time that "he will never raise his hand against his state." Considering that his state is now raising its hand against the Union, the value of Mr. John M. Botts' patriotism can easily be estimated.

THE SECRET OUT.—John Forsyth, in a recent speech at Mobile, said the confederate commissioners to Washington succeeded perfectly in their great object, viz: "To gain time for perfecting our (the south's) military operations, and rendering ourselves invincible."

THE BLOCKADE—THE NOTICE.—An examination of our treaties with foreign countries, discloses the fact that the sixty days' notice previous to a blockade, only applies to third powers in the event of war with a foreign nation, and bears no relation to a partial blockade of domestic ports to put down insurrection. The general newspaper dispatch set afloat to injure the administration does not, therefore, amount to much.

Facts and Inferences.

The correspondence between Gov. Hicks of Maryland, and the government, has been published. It shows that the cabinet had information that threats had been made that the troops should not pass safely thro' Maryland. 2. That Hicks endeavored to prevent the passage of government troops, both before and after the outbreak, and protested against the occupation of Annapolis. 3. That Gen. Butler tendered the services of Massachusetts troops to put down a negro insurrection. 4. That but for the prompt action of Gen'l Butler, without instructions, the Annapolis route to Washington would not have been secured. The secessionists had possession of the frigate Constitution at Annapolis, when Gen. Butler arrived there, and were preparing to resist their landing. He promptly drove them out, and secured the transit by Annapolis, and the Massachusetts troops had the honor of saving the capital.

There are several inferences from all this, viz.: that the war department was rather slow in its action; that Gov. Hicks is a double traitor—treacherous to the government and the secessionists; that Gen. Butler is more Quixotic than wise in attempting to put down two rebellions at once, especially, if let alone, one would have disposed of the other; and, finally, that the palm of promptness and bravery must, so far, be awarded to Massachusetts, in this war.

FORT PICKENS.—Gen. Bragg has now under his command at Pensacola 8,000 men, according to secession authority. The commander of Fort Pickens is throwing up batteries on the outside of his fort, for guns from the ships, and is pileing sand bags on the ramparts of the fort, to protect his men and guns.

THE COTTON MONOPOLY.—The New York Evening Post, in an able and long article on the prospect of a short crop of cotton in the United States and a deficient supply in England, and after demonstrating the ability of the English manufacturers to supply themselves, to a great extent, from other countries, says:

"The cotton monopoly of our planters has for ten years hung on the slenderest of threads. They possess the market; they are near the market; and they have for years strained every nerve to supply the greater part of the demand of Europe.—But they have been able to do so only because the government of the United States gave them peace and prosperity with an inappreciable minimum taxation, and because the northwest supplied them with food and the northeast with manufactures, while the power and presage of the Union which they have so scornfully cast off gave them security at home and fair treatment abroad. They have held their monopoly only because to it they were enabled to give every muscle and every dollar they had. It was long ago said that the failure of two successive cotton crops in the southern states would be a death-blow to their cotton culture by slave labor, at once. It is probable now that the mere danger of a short crop will have the same effect."

A SIGNIFICANT SYMPTOM.—The New Orleans Price Current of the 27th has a very significant indication of the state of business of that city. Its quotations of sugar is:

"We left the market on last Tuesday so entirely unsettled as to prevent any quotations. There has been no favorable change since. The war has completely suspended operations, and the sales have been confined to retail transactions."

Its quotation of prices is in blank, and it then adds:

"Arrived since the 23d inst., 253 hhd, 10 bbls. Total receipts of the week, 959 hhds, 25 bbls. Cleared since the 23d inst., none. Total export of the week, 1 hhd."

Just observe. No quotations, and the export of the week only one hogshead! How long can New Orleans stand up under such a state of things?

ST. LOUIS, May 6.

Four full regiments of volunteers have been mustered into the U. S. service, and a fifth is being formed. The third and fourth regiments and part of the second are encamped in the arsenal grounds. The first is quartered at Jefferson Barracks, 12 miles below the city, and part of the second at the Marine Hospital, about a mile below the arsenal.

Several buildings outside of the arsenal walls are occupied by U. S. troops, and a heavy turf breastwork pierced for four guns has been erected, which commands the vicinity. Gen. Sigel has been elected colonel of the 3d regiment, and Schultner colonel of the 4th.

The legislature was in secret session on Saturday and nothing is known of its proceedings.

The reports of riots and other disturbances in St. Louis, which are floating about the country, are entirely false. The city is quiet and orderly and the utmost freedom of speech prevails in all quarters.

A severe gale of wind passed over the city yesterday, damaging several houses to a considerable extent and forcing boats from their moorings at the wharf, but as far as ascertained no lives were lost.

Gen. Frost's brigade of Missouri Volunteer militia went into encampment to-day at Lindell's Grove in the western suburbs of the city, in accordance with the order of the adjutant general of the state.

HARRISBURG, May 6.

Three hundred cavalry well mounted left Carlisle Barracks this morning, said to go through Baltimore.

In the legislature to-day it was proposed that as ex-Senator Mason, of Virginia, owned a large amount of property in Pennsylvania, that a committee be appointed to investigate the matter, And whereas, he has been guilty of treason, no conveyance or transfer of the same shall be acknowledged or recorded in the state.

Motion was made to extend the time suspending specie payment by the banks until the next meeting of the legislature in January next.

NEW YORK, May 6.

The schooner John from Charleston has arrived here.

She has 30 passengers all glad to get north but expected to hear that Washington had been taken.

The schooner Chas. Davis from Wilmington, N. C., has on board Lieut. Delanel and fifty men late of Fayetteville arsenal. They report that on April 17th between 1,000 and 1,200 North Carolina militia demanded the surrender of the arsenal. It was deemed prudent by Maj. Anderson to comply as resistance was useless. Lieut. Delanel and men were allowed to depart unmolested. Maj. Anderson was left, being too sick to be removed. The arsenal contained 40,000 stand of arms.

WASHINGTON, May 4.

By advice of military authorities, the mayor issued proclamation requiring all drinking saloons to close at 9:30 p. m.—Much alarm exists at Alexandria, owing to proposed military occupation.

Gen. Scott has published a card begging correspondents to spare him saying he has no office in his gift, no power to accept volunteer corps, or individuals, and has no time to answer letters.

Gov. Letcher issued a proclamation saying sovereignty of Virginia had been denied, territorial rights assailed, soil threatened with invasion by authority at Washington, and every artifice employed to inflame the people of northern states against us. It therefore becomes a solemn duty of every citizen of Virginia to prepare for the impending conflict. In this view he authorizes the military commander to order out the forces and muster additional numbers of volunteers, as the exigencies of the times may demand.

NEW YORK, May 6.

A special despatch to the Times says the Maryland legislature re-assembled to-day.

Secessionists it is said will not attempt to call a convention, if they do the Union men will insist that the question of convention or no convention, shall be referred to the people at the election for delegates.

A Baltimorean had an interview with Gen. Butler last evening, who said northern troops must march in safety over ground where Massachusetts blood was spilt, and if they were attacked from houses, the houses would be blown up.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.

Special to the Post—The steamer W. B. Rainey is to convey a force form Annapolis to retake Smith's Pt. light ship.

The Rainey has 4 guns and 70 men on board. She will replace the light ship removed by the rebels.

A war steamer is now stationed off Fort McHenry to assist the garrison in case of exigency.

NEW YORK, May 6.

Gov. Alden of N. J., has accepted the brigade of the Hudson Co., and General Wright offered its services to the government for an indefinite period.

The Post's Washington despatches say large numbers of exiles from Virginia are constantly arriving. Also says advices from Tennessee say Senator Johnson will make a speech in favor of the Union in a day or two.

It also says that the government is determined to re-take Harper's Ferry Arsenal.

Also official permission is granted for the continuance of passenger and mail service by steamer between Baltimore and Norfolk.

FORT SMITH, ARK., May 6.

A gentleman who has just arrived from Fort Washington brings intelligence from that post up to May 1st. The U. S. troops comprising six companies of cavalry and one of infantry, in all about 600 men, were preparing to evacuate the fort on Thursday last.

Gov. Harris from Fort Smith arrived on the 1st inst.

WASHINGTON, May 6.

The president has appointed Lieut. Nicholson as Adjutant and Inspector of the Marine corps, vice Taylor removed.

The government has declined accepting more than one regiment of three months volunteers from Michigan.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, May 6.

Government has determined to advance troops into Virginia, so as to secure control of the country for twenty-five miles west of the Potomac river. This movement is intended both to render the safety of the capitol greater, and to command the resources of a rich agricultural district for the sustenance of the army. A movement of federal forces in the direction of Alexandria is hourly expected. The Virginia troops returned to that point on Saturday morning, the order to march to Richmond having reached them through a mistake, but on hearing of the intended approach of troops from this side, they retreated in hot haste in the afternoon. Half of the population of Alexandria also fled terror-stricken into the interior.

Nearly 5,000 troops have arrived since last night from New York and New Jersey. All the New Jersey regiments will be here by noon. The Jerseyites were all fully uniformed, equipped, and present a splendid appearance.

I have just been shown a letter from a Virginia officer at Richmond to a brother in this city. He says that with late arrivals from the south there are now over 7,000 men concentrated in that city. The general belief among the troops is that they will soon move in the direction of Washington.

The twenty eighth (Brooklyn) regiment came up the Potomac under the convoy of several armed vessels. The passage is unobstructed by Virginians.

A descent upon Harper's Ferry will doubtlessly be made by the troops collecting in southern Pennsylvania in the course of the present week.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 7.

The Herald's Washington despatches of the 6th say that the forces at the Relay House have been reinforced to-day, and at an hour and a half's notice a further reinforcement of two or three thousand men could be furnished to Gen. Butler. Before the troops from Harper's Ferry could approach near enough to give Gen. Butler battle, they would be harassed by the Pennsylvania troops now in the vicinity.

There is no fear of any fighting at Baltimore, unless an attack is made by some impetuous and disorganised mob. There can be no formidable or regular battle.

WASHINGTON, May 7.

The Charleston Courier says the collector at that port has been instructed by the government of the confederate states to clear private vessels and cargoes until war is declared and the will of congress is made known.

Gen. Beauregard has left Charleston for Montgomery.

The entire Jersey troops are here in this city, and elicit much praise.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.

Senator Bayard of Delaware arrived here this forenoon, having left Wilmington fearing an assault would be made upon him.—He was taken into custody at the depot here but was discharged by Mayor Henry, he having no charge against him.

NEW YORK, May 7.

The 20th regiment left to-day for Washington by railroad, probably via Annapolis.

Tribune's Washington correspondence says that government has certain advices that there are between 3 and 5,000 troops in the vicinity of Fairfax court house, Va., and that within two days march of Richmond there are at least 30,000 volunteers who desire soon to be quartered in Washington.

A gentleman who was at Gen'l Butler's camp this forenoon, says there is a battery planted on the other side of the Potapsco river which can rake him effectively. He informed Gen. Butler, who at once made preparations to take it.

Thomas J. Townsend has been appointed Surveyor General of Wisconsin and Iowa.

NEW YORK, May 7.

Gen'l Cooke, commanding the rebel military troops and defences on the Potomac border of Virginia, says that Gen. Ruggles had taken his quarters at Fredericksburg. He is to take a position in front of Washington in connection with Harper's Ferry on his left, and thus cover and defend the Potomac border against invasion from the north. He adds the capitol has never been threatened by us. It is not now threatened. It is beyond and outside the limits of the sovereign state of Virginia. The north has not openly and according to the usage of civilized nations declared war on us; we make no war on them, but should the soil or the grave of Washington be polluted by the tread of a single man in arms from north of the Potomac it will cause open war.

BOSTON, May 7.

Gov. Andrew received a despatch from the war department, stating that no additional troops would be required at present, unless enlisting for three years.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.

Four Philadelphia regiments and two Ohio regiments are under orders to march to-morrow.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, May 7.

Flour market rather more active, but prices unchanged. Sales — bbls a 5,10, super were 5,15a5,20, common to medium extra western —. Wheat market heavy and rather easier for common grades. Sales 30,000 bu. a1,25 delivered Milwaukee club 1,70a1,75 handsome white Kentucky.

THE FOOTVILLE FLAG.—We are informed that the individual in Footville who was charged with wishing the death by yellow fever and battle of the volunteers who may go south, denies having expressed any such wish, and we were wrongly informed as to a flag being raised over his house.

NEW ARMORY.—Assistant Adj't White is having a room in Porter's block, Madison, fitted up as an armory. This is rendered necessary, as many stands of arms are shortly expected to arrive.

A portion of these arms, we understand, passed through this city yesterday.

LIBERAL.—The city of Norwich, Conn., which contains about ten thousand inhabitants, has given in individual subscriptions to aid the families of volunteers, $20,265.

A Spicy Letter.

There is some fun and humor among the volunteers in Madison, even if there is hard swearing over poor rations and bad lodgings. The following communication appears in one of the Madison papers:

FROM THE CAMP—A CARD.—The undersigned respectfully represents to the public, as follows: That he has been "detailed" by an eminently respectable number of eminently respectable soldiers now quartered in Camp Randall, to vindicate their unsoldierly action in "groaning" the Hon. Commissary, and making other similar demonstrations of dissatisfaction yesterday morning,—before and since.

The fact of the matter is simply this: most of the soldiery here quartered never were, like Ben Battle, of whom Hood writes,

"—— soldiers bold,
And used to war's alarms!"

On the contrary, we come from the pantries of our respective wives and mothers. In good sooth, we all knew we must come to soldier's rations. We are ready for it; we are reasonable, patriotic amateur soldiers, all spoiling for a fight with rebels. But in the outset, we swear, that we believe that the people of Wisconsin, from the several regions whence we come, don't believe in subjecting us to the style of rations and quarters we have received part of the time since our advent. We are ready to "come to Limerick," when 'tis necessary—eat foul meat, fouler bread, or any other rations known in the history of the Mexican or Revolutionary wars; but in this land of plenty, where potatoes are selling at the low price of two shillings a bushel, and beef most "demnition" cheap, we humbly appeal for murphies that are not half rotten and t'other half as watery as though they had soaked eleven years in the Dead Sea. Our beef is goodish—we munch it with a relish; and if we stand in four inches depth of mud while we gobble it, we don't consider anybody 'xcept the Clerk of the Weather responsible for what can't be avoided or foreseen. Our only complaint is, that we've slept wet, consequently got awful colds, and had rations which, though they may be all this provision-laden state can afford, have been in a bad rain storm, soaked in water too long to be palatable even for hungry soldiers. And even now, we will not complain if the patriotic citizens of Madison will not charge us with being better rowdies than soldiers. "That's what we don't like," as Ike Woodle said. If there is a man among us who would not, under the circumstances, have been with us had he been of us, he will please present himself to

4 CORPORALS.

Barracks, Saturday morning, May 4.

We will bet a Bungtown copper that one of the printers who have laid down the printing office "shooting stick" for a government shooting iron, wrote that letter.—Who takes the bet? "Ye Shanghai" is in the camp.

FOREIGN MEDIATON IN AMERICAN QUARRELS.—The London Times throws out an intimation that England only awaits the commencement of hostilities between the north and south to offer her good offices for the reconcilement of the differences between them: We are much obliged for the intention; but the time is not yet arrived for us to be reduced to the necessity of calling in foreign aid for arrangement of our domestic difficulties. We can settle our quarrels after our own fashion, and without any officious interference on the part of the European governments. There is a curious coincidence between this suggestion of the London Times and the proposition of Gov. Hicks for a reference of the difficulties to the decision of Lord Lyons. The English government would no doubt, like nothing better than to act as arbiter in a contest which so vitally effects its commercial interests. It knows but little, however, of the character and temper of the northern states if it supposes that they would brook for a moment any foreign intermeddling in their affairs. Great Britain herself would fiercely resent any attempt on the part of another power to interpose between her and the punishment of rebellion in any part of her dominions. We of the north have too much of her blood and spirit to patiently submit to such impertinent interference. No, our difficulty with the south is past all cure by politicians or diplomats. The sword alone can solve it.—New York Herald.

RIOT.—There was a riot in a house in the Third ward yesterday afternoon. We heard that the ten or fifteen rioters belonged to the 2d regiment, but Col. Coon informs us that they are not volunteers, but only hangers on at the camp. During the melee Constable Bevitt, of the Second ward, who bravely stood his ground, had his pistol wrested from him. When this happened he was powerless and of course had to subside. His pistol was not only broken, but was afterwards thrown away and he is now pistolless and the unlicensed dogs can run around with impunity. We hear that several law-abiding citizens intend presenting him with a repeating revolver as a testimonial to his dauntless conduct.

The police quieted the rioters but did not arrest any of them, probably thinking that they belonged to the 2d regiment.—Madison Patriot.

The printers of New York city are joining in for the war quite enthusiastically. Six have gone from the Times office, six from the News, twelve from the Tribune, twenty-three from the World, eight from the Herald, six from the Express, eight from Harper's, six from the Journal of Commerce and Courier. All told, about two hundred members of the craft have enlisted for the campaign.

The New York Times contains letters from two southern firms to northern creditors, refusing to pay their debts on account of hostilities between the two sections. It will probably grow to be a question, before a great while, whether this war was commenced by the south in behalf of slavery or swindling.

ANOTHER THIEF.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat writes from New Mexico, as follows:

It is currently reported here that Major Rhett, paymaster of this department, has left for the southern confederacy, and in the hurry of a southern departure, forgot to leave Uncle Sam's purse behind, the small change in which is estimated at about $70,000. He is said to hail from South Carolina.

There are plenty of printers in the companies now at Camp Randall. In the La Crosse Light Guard there are no less than six, and there are probably as many in the Portage company. They will now have to throw lead into muskets instead of sticks, put it into forms that will probably never need unlocking in this life, and which can only be purified by the lye of "another and a better world."—Madison Patriot.

"During 181 years ending in 1819," said a mild member of the Peace Society, "England spent 65 years in war and 66 in peace!" "Wall, supposing she did?" said a belligerent John Bull, "haint the odds in favor of pence?"

Thoughts for the Times.

Hark! from the south the clarion's shrill blast
With spring's soft bugle notes, comes hurrying past
In wild discordant sounds, whose echo seems
The airy phantasy of troubled dreams.
But ah! it is no dream, the cannon's roar
Comes booming onward from our southern shore,
East, West and north, the sound of war's alarms
Have met the quick response "to arms, to arms,"—
Have hostile bands, from distant lands afar,
Or savage tribes, who seek the spoils of war,
Dared to invade Columbia's happy land,
And in defiance hurl the warlike brand?
Alas, alas, it was no foreign foe
Who aimed at liberty that deadly blow,
The false, degenerate sons of patriot sires
Have [illegible] to quench our sacred altar fires;
Perfidiously betrayed their sacred trust,
And trailed our nation's ensign in the dust.
And shall the traitors thus without a cause
Assail our flag, and trample on our laws,
Dissolve this glorious Union, and o'erthrow
The chartered liberties of freemen? No!
They come, they come, all eager for the fight,
The royal eagle plumes his wings for flight,
The Spartan mother kneels beside her son
And with "God bless you" girds his armor on,
The fond wife clasps her husband to her heart,
Then bids him go, and bravely play his part,
The sister looks the thoughts she cannot speak,
And prints a kiss upon her brother's cheek,
Thus, woman nerves the hero for the fight,
Then meekly kneels and prays, "God speed the right."

Northmen, Come Out!

DEDICATED TO THE MASSACHUSETTS REGIMENTS, BY CHARLES GODFREY LELAND.

Air—Burschen heraus!

Northmen, come out!
Forth unto the battle with storm and shout!
Freedom calls you once again,
To flag and fort and tented plain;
Then come with drum and trump and song,
And raise the war-cry wild and strong:
Northmen, come out.

Northmen, come out!
The foe is waiting round about,
With paixhan mortar and petard,
To tender us their Beauregard;
With shot and shrapnel, grape and shell
We'll give them back the fire of hell;
Northmen, come out!

Northmen, come out!
Give the pirates a roaring rout;
Out in your strength and let them know
How working men to work can go.
Out in your might and let them feel
How mudsills strike when edged with steel;
Northmen, come out!

Northmen, come out!
Come like your grandsires stern and stout,
Though cotton be of kingly stock,
Yet royal heads may reach the block,
The Puritan taught it once in pain,
His sons shall teach it once again,
Northmen, come out!

Northmen, come out!
Forth into battle with storm and shout!
He who lives with victory is blest,
He who dies gains peaceful rest,
Living or dying let us be
Still vowed to God and Liberty!
Northmen, come out!

Rendezvous for the Regiments.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says:

We are well aware it is perfectly competent for the Governor to make the rendezvous of the regiments not called into service, where he pleases; but if there is any good reason for scattering them about the state, we are unable to perceive it. It would manifestly be more convenient, economical, and serviceable, in all respects, to have them together; and without a particle of local feeling, we express the opinion that where the general government appointed, without hesitation, the rendezvous of the First Regiment, is the place.

We quite agree with the Sentinel that the troops in this state should rendezvous at one place, and "without a particle of local feeling," we think the best place of all others is Janesville. In the first place, we have the most central arrangement of railroads for concentrating troops at one point, from all directions. Secondly, provisions are more abundant and cheaper here than at any other point—if the rendezvous should be at Milwaukee the troops must be fed upon flour, beef and pork sent to them from this region. It is cheaper to carry men to the provisions, especially, as in this case, they would be in as good a position to be ordered to their destination as in that city, and we believe better. It is not known where our troops will be first needed. Perhaps at Washington, but more likely somewhere on the Mississippi river. At Janesville, they can be sent to Chicago or Freeport, as the necessities of the case demand. We have competing roads here, whereas there is but one road from Milwaukee to Illinois, unless they come through Janesville. We therefore submit, taking into consideration the convenience of receiving and despatching troops, procuring supplies for them, and holding them at a convenient place to be forwarded to any destination which the exigencies of the service may demand, our city is the best rendezvous for the Wisconsin troops. However, we shall find no fault with the Governor for selecting another place. He has the whole matter in his hands and will do the best for the state that his judgment dictates, and we have no fear but the best selection will be made taking all things into consideration.

Correspondence.

To Rev. G. C. Heckman—

Dear Sir: The undersigned have learned from our city papers that you proposed to favor your congregation on last Sabbath evening with a "war" sermon. We have also learned that, owing to the unfavorableness of the weather, its delivery was postponed for a time; and, as you are proposing to leave town for several weeks, that time must be long before you will appear before your congregation as usual on the Sabbath. We therefore respectfully request for ourselves and many others, that you will do us the favor of allowing us to listen to its delivery at some time before your departure. Allow us to suggest Wednesday evening of this week, the hour and place to be named by yourself. Please reply at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly, M. P. KINNEY,
H. C. TILTON,
J. H. JENNE,
E. J. GOODSPEED.

Rev. Messrs. Kinney, Tilton, Jenne and Goodspeed:

Dear Brethren:—I have just received yours. Accept my thanks for your kind request. I shall be most happy to deliver my sermon on "The Civil War," on Wednesday evening, at my own church or at any other place you may deem best.

Fraternally yours,
Geo. C. Heckman.

Janesville, May 7th, 1861.

We are authorized to state that Mr. Heckman will preach at the Congregational church at half-past seven o'clock.

Patriotic Envelopes.—We are now closing up an order for these envelopes from O. J. Dearborn which finishes 31,000 for him. Yesterday he sent 2,000 into Illinois, and filled several orders from the northern part of the state. The supply on hand is small, and we should not be surprised to see Mr. Dearborn come into the office at any time with an armful of boxes, and hear the good-natured exclamation—"Boys, here are some more envelopes for you."

In addition to the number printed for Mr. D., we have printed for other parties, and are fitting out the county officers with a full supply.

Each of these envelopes goes through the press twice, and consequently to print 30,000 requires 60,000 impressions. If 1000 impressions are made an hour, (which our Ruggles' bill-head press will do,) and the press is run ten hours a day, a week's uninterrupted work is required to print 30,000 of the envelopes. This rate of speed, however, is not practicable for ten consecutive hours, as the demand for the envelopes is so great that we have been obliged to change the forms and the ink very frequently to fill the orders constantly received.—Our small press has been used in this work for nearly a fortnight, with such interruptions as other jobs necessarily required.

We have a new style of cut, to be worked in colors, which makes a beautiful design for a letter-head or an envelope, which we will exhibit to such friends as desire to see it.

Seeds Received.—The Corresponding Secretary of the Rock County Agricultural Society, W. S. Chase, has just received a large variety of seeds from the Patent Office, for distribution among the members of the society. Those who desire them will please call upon Mr. Chase.

A Quiet Town.—The Green Bay Press says: "Gov. Seymour is sojourning in our city some weeks, for the benefit of pure air and repose. He can find them here." He can't find nothin' else!

C. G. Barker, S. Elethorp and A. B. Williams, each 50 bushels of wheat.

Our Norwegian citizens are also at work with their usual industry. Several of their young men have offered their names as volunteers. They have also organized by holding an enthusiastic meeting. The Secretary of their meeting, the Rev. O. Andrewson, showed me a copy of their resolutions, and the subscription list. The resolutions were strong and earnest for the constitution and the laws, and for putting down rebellion. In one resolution they agree to pay any of their countrymen who may enlist, $20 premium, furnish him with a revolver and rubber blanket, and sustain his family if he has one while absent. Their subscription already amounts to $500, and they say they have not done yet.

The following is a list of our volunteers, which are accepted and are now at Camp Randall, in Capt. Slaymaker's company of Beloit Cadet Rifles. Several others have given their names, and are waiting for an opening:—

C D Wooster	Arthur W Mason
John Claflin	Peter Bush
Edward Crandall	James Butler
A M Case	Julius Townsend
Truman Babcock	Moses Smith
Chester W Cobb

We have supplied our volunteers with a rubber and a woolen blanket, and shall furnish them with revolvers as soon as we can ascertain where they can be had.

Eleven accepted volunteers and $3,125, is what we have done, but our lives and fortunes are forthcoming if the wants of our country demand it. Yours truly,

D. G. CHEEVER.

Meeting in Hanover.

Editors of the Gazette and Free Press:—

Please notice that patriotic little Hanover is "equal to the emergency." Our citizens raised a fine pole and run up the stars and stripes on Saturday last, amid the cheers of the multitude, for "Our flag and the Union." Appropriate remarks were made and songs sung. And what is remarkable, too, our flag is raised upon a hill where it "cannot be hid"—but is distinguishable for miles around. Meetings have been held here for patriotic purposes and we have furnished a fair quota of volunteers from our town.—Be assured that Plymouth will do her duty.

Yours, VEEDER.

[We learn that Mr. S. F. Chipman read a stirring patriotic ode, his own composition, and also addressed the meeting.—Eds. Gazette.]

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDER.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry, on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.
